

Mr David Murray

Rushworth Chronicle

26 October, 1888

MURRAY.—On Tuesday, the 23rd October, at his residence, Coy's Diggings, David Donald Murray, an old and respected resident of the Rushworth district. Aged 60.

Mr D. Murray, well-known in the Rushworth district as an old and much esteemed resident, expired at his residence at Coy's on Tuesday last.

Mr Murray was sadly ailing for a long time, and his death was not unlooked for.

The remains were followed by a large number of persons to their last resting place, the Whroo cemetery, yesterday afternoon.
