

Henry Robertshaw

Waranga Chronicle

13 May, 1880

Henry Robertshaw, who has been mining for many years in the different mining centres of the district, and who was lately in charge of Mr Mumford's store at Whroo, expired, after a lingering illness, at the Nine Mile, on Sunday.

His remains were interred in the Whroo cemetery on Tuesday.

Mr Robertshaw is shown as 52 years, according to cemetery records.
