

Hugh Cameron, jnr.

Rushworth Chronicle

31 December, 1897

Our Whroo correspondent writes as follows: — I regret to have to record the death of Hugh Cameron, aged 10 years, son of Mr Hugh Cameron of this town. The sad event occurred on Xmas Day from inflammation of the brain, after an illness of only three days.

Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved parents.

The Rev. Walker read the burial service, the Sunday School children singing two appropriate hymns, one at the house and the other at the grave.

The Whroo cemetery register lists Hugh Cameron, of this date.
