

Birney, infant son of W. Birney

Murchison Advertiser

19 May, 1905

The friends of Mr W. Birney, Whroo, will regret to learn that his infant son, aged thirteen months, expired on Friday evening last.

The little sufferer had only been ill about a fortnight.

The remains were interred in the Whroo cemetery on Sunday, Mr F. Rich reading the funeral service.

This is likely to have been the son of William Birney jnr., and his wife, the former Emily Rubeli. (They are mentioned in "The Early Families of Whroo", by Doris King.)